A Word to Those Who Read This Book

I did plan, when I began compiling the 1929 Odd Fellows Roster, to get the complete listing of every Canton, Encampment, Subordinate and Rebekah Lodge in the city of Portland, the names of the elective officers for the current term, with the corrected names and addresses of each and every member on the membership roll. In this one respect I have failed because I could not get the co-operation of all secretaries, and the lodges that are missing from this roster neglected to send in their listings after numerous requests, and was forced to go to press without them. To those sending in their lists I am indeed grateful for their efforts.

To the Advertisers: I wish to thank each advertiser who signed a contract for space and made this roster possible.

To the Membership: I request each of you to patronize them and give them your whole support.

I wish to thank Charles Reed, Christensen and John Schoni, Jr., for their efforts on behalf of the Club, Grand Secretary E. E. Sharon and Brother Barnes for the History on Odd Fellowship.

Yours in F. L. and T.,

R. E. BRESNAHAN.

ALBERT N. GAMBEL,

Oldest Member in Point of Membership in Portland.

Mr. Gambel was presented with a diamond-studded jewel for more than 60 years of service. He was born in Vermont in 1811, journeyed to California in 1860 and came to Portland in 1871. He was city auditor of Portland from 1893 to 1900. He joined the Odd Fellows at Auburn, Calif., in 1863, passed through the chairs and entered the Grand Lodge of California in 1865. Upon coming to Portland he joined the Oregon Grand Lodge and in 1889 was elected Grand Secretary. He served as Secretary of the old Odd Fellows Temple Association at First and Alder Streets for 48 years, retiring when the temple was partially destroyed by fire.

In compiling this history Mr. Barnes has been prompted by the desire to give every Odd Fellow a better understanding of the Order, enabling him to better appreciate its value. For if each member knew what a wonderful organization he belonged to, the extensive field of our labors, and the enormous amount of good we have accomplished, he would become, in every way, a better Odd Fellow.

In order to compile this little pamphlet a diligent study of Odd Fellowship has been made. It would be impossible, in a pamphlet of this size, to write all of the important facts, therefore only the facts of most interest to the membership at large have been used.

The facts contained herein have been taken from:

Ridgley's First Decade of American Odd Fellowship.

Odd Fellowship. Its History. (These two volumes are out of print.)

The Official History of Odd Fellowship or The Three Link Fraternity. (Which can probably be secured from G. W. Brice, Grand Secretary.)

ARCHIBALD BARNES.

A Brief History of Odd Fellowship

ARCHIBALD BARNES

Secret Societies had their beginning long before the first dawn of civilization. The most primitive savage tribes had societies into which no man was admitted who did not first pass through an initiatory ceremony of some description. This was true, not only of the tribes of Europe, Asia, Africa, and Australia, but also of the savage tribes of North and South America. As the human races became more enlightened, and the people became divided into two classes, the rich and the poor, or the master and slave, two lines of societies came into existence, one composed of the rich, which had for its object the holding of the poor under subjection, and the other composed of the poor, which had for its object the relief of one another in distress, and to better their condition.

The lodges of the rich, being composed of the masters and lawmakers of the land, were continually securing the passage of laws that were calculated to crush the lodges of the poor, which would sink out of sight. After a time they would reappear, under a new name, but with the same object in view. This continued for many centuries.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows is supposed to be a lineal descendant of one of these ancient secret societies, by way of the English Guilds and the Noble Order of Bucks.

The first Guild that is mentioned is in the year 1318, but none of its records are at hand.

The following is a copy of the first record made of the government of the fraternity of St. James at Garlekhth, London, England:

"It was begun by good men on St. James Day, 1375, for amendment of their lives and of their souls, and to nourish love between the Brethren and Sisters of the brotherhood, all of whom had to swear on the book to perform the points underneath writing, at their power."

Every member must be of good repute and condition, pay 6s. 8d. toward the yearly feast. Wardens were to be chosen from the wisest of the brotherhood, under penalty of 40s. if they refused to act. They were to collect dues and account for them yearly, on the morrow of the feast, take the oaths of new members and sisters in their disputes. There was to be a livery suit; and besides the yearly feasts, quarterly meetings, to speak touching the profit and rule of the aforesaid brotherhood, which all brethren were to attend, under penalty of a pound of wax. The usual form of such penalty, on the death of a brother, or sister, was to join in the burial service under the like penalty. If any member of the brotherhood, after having dwelt in it seven years, and fulfilled all duties, should fall in such mischief that he hath naught' either through 'eld or mischief of feebleness,' himself, he was to have 1s. 2d. from the common box until he was recovered of his mischief. The brethren and sisters were not to quarrel, but if they did, as before mentioned, their quarrel was laid before the wardens; if either party to dispute proved disobedient to the award then made, he was to be put out of the brotherhood, and the other party to have his "account by the law" and be helped by the brotherhood agents "the rebelle and unboxhum." On the other hand if any member of seven years standing, and not in default as aforesaid, was imprisoned by enmity, or by false conspiracy and had naught to find him with, he was to have 1s. 2d. weekly during his imprisonment."

The above is a copy of a report of a social Guild, at the same time there was in existence what were called trades Guilds. The trade Guilds were given protection by the government and were called the only lawful workmen. While laws were passed calculated to suppress the social Guilds, and it is no wonder that in time these Guilds were compelled to suspend meetings.

Much money was spent during the fourteenth, fifteenth and the early part of the sixteenth century by the Guilds in alleviating the distress of its members, and as they sank from sight, there arose an Order to take its place which was called the Noble Order of Bucks. This Order had the same principles and was conducted in about the same manner as the social Guilds. They called the presiding officer Most Noble Grand. The next officer was called Senior Vice Grand or Deputy Noble Grand, and the third officer was called Junior Vice Grand; they also had an officer called the Warden.

They had a Grand Lodge system and called the presiding officer of the Grand Lodge, "Grand Master," and the delegates to the Grand Lodge "Noble Bucks." They spent a great deal of money for the relief of those in distress, especially for the assistance of the widows and children of soldiers who lost their lives in battle.

According to the records of this order which are still in existence, it was claimed by the members that the order was founded by Nimrod, the bullock of the Tower of Babel, (one of the officers was called Nimrod). The emblem of this Order was three Buck heads, side by side, the buck in the center having his horns thrust between the horns of the bucks on each side of him. Draw a figure to represent the three links of Odd Fellowship, under each link draw a picture of a buck's head, erase the upper side of each link and you will have the emblem of the Noble Order of Bucks. This is supposed to be the origination of the emblem we have today.

This Order disappeared, and was succeeded by the Order of Odd Fellows. Much discussion has been indulged in as to the organization of the first Lodge of Odd Fellows. One story is that it was organized by five marble workers in London in the year of 1715, and spread from that lodge all over the British Islands. But when the question was asked of the Grand Lodge of the Manchester Unity by the Grand Lodge of the United States in 1845, it was answered by the Grand officers of that body as follows:

"The origin of the Order is of antique date. It was first established by the Roman soldiers in camp after the Order of Israelites during the reign of Nero, the Roman Emperor, in the year of grace 55. The name of Odd Fellows was given to this Order of men in 70, by Titus Caesar, from the singularity of their notions, and from their knowing each other by night as well as by day, and from their fidelity to him as well as to their country.

It is very probable that the first Odd Fellows made their appearance in North Wales about the year 70, as one of Titus Caesars generals, Agricola, invaded that country at that time.

The first account we have of the Order spreading itself into other countries is in the 5th century, when it was established in the Spanish dominions, under Roman dispersion; in the 6th century, by Henry of Portugal; in the 12th century it was established in France; and afterward in England by John D. Neville, attended by 5 knights of France, who established a Grand Lodge of Honor in England, which order remained until the 18th century, in the reign of George III, when a part of them formed themselves into a Union, and a portion of them remain to this day. On this account the lodges which remain are very numerous throughout the world, and call themselves the Loyal Ancient Order of Odd Fellows, being a portion of the original body.

The records of the early Lodges of Odd Fellows have not been preserved, and I have not been able to find any mention of authentic records of any fraternal organization prior to 1315, consequently there is no way of verifying either of the legends. They are not considered a part of our history.

The authentic history of Odd Fellows dates from 1715. Daniel DeFoe in his letters mentioned the Odd Fellows, and in the Gentlemen's Magazine of 1715, the Odd Fellows Lodge is mentioned as "a place where very pleasant and recreative evenings are spent." The poet James Montgomery in 1788 wrote a song for a "Body of Odd Fellows." Below are verses taken from two of the favorite songs of that time:

When Friendship, Love and Truth Abound
 Among a Band of Brothers
 The cup of Joy goes gally round
 Each shares the bliss of others.

and

"Then let us be social, be generous, be kind,
 And let each take his glass and be mellow,
 Then we'll join heart and hand,
 Leave dissensions behind,
 And each prove a hearty Odd Fellow.

While there is much speculation regarding the origin and early history of Odd Fellows, it has been proven that between the years 1715 and 1780 a great and powerful order known as the Noble Order of Bucks was forced out of existence in England, and in its place arose an organization called the Odd Fellows, which had the same principles, the same form of government, used some of the same emblems, and called its officers by the same names.

The following story is told of King George IV, when he was Prince of Wales. "An amusing anecdote is told about the "Feathers" Grosvenor street. A Lodge of Odd Fellows was held at this house, in a private chamber of which, George, Prince of Wales, one night intruded very abruptly with a roistering friend. The society was, at that moment, celebrating some of its awful mysteries, which no uninitiated eye may behold, and these were witnessed by the profane intruders. The only way to repair the sacrilege was to make the Prince and his companion 'Odd Fellows,' a title they certainly deserved as richly as any member of the club. The Initiatory rites were quickly conferred, and the Prince was chairman for the rest of the evening."

The Order of Odd Fellows spread rapidly over the Kingdom of Great Britain until 1790-1796, when the Government becoming alarmed at the result of the Revolution in France, passed laws for the suppression of all seditious gatherings, and forbid the administering of oaths by secret societies. The penalties of the laws, were through the agency of officers, spies, informers, visited with unusual severity upon the people.

The Odd Fellows, lest their purposes should be suspected, and their teaching misconstrued, decided to suspend public operations and discontinue correspondence with their respective Grand Lodges. As a result the Order of Odd Fellows became divided into several smaller orders and each was independent of the other, except that each accorded allegiance to the mother lodge, recognizing its supervising influence, under the authority of the dispensation it had granted, and each took a name of its own choosing.

Among these may be named, Manchester Unity of Odd Fellows, Manchester; Imperial Odd Fellows, Nottingham; Ancient Noble Odd Fellows, Bolton; Grand United Order of Odd Fellows, Sheffield; Economical Odd Fellows, Leeds; National Odd Fellows, Salford; London Unity Odd Fellows, London; and many other smaller lodges.

In 1813 a convention of the past and present officers of all the lodges interested, in Manchester and the outlying districts was held. Those represented were: Lord Abercrombie Grand Lodge No. 1, Salford; Wellington No. 2, Manchester; Clarence No. 3, Salford; Victory No. 4, Manchester; Victoria No. 5, Ashton-under-line; and Cumbermere Lodge No. 6, all of Stockport. All of these lodges were independent of each other and after due consideration an agreement was reached to form an organization of the lodges, under the title of "The Manchester Unity of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows."

In 1814 on January 21, the organization was formally accomplished, and a Grand Lodge provided, James Christie was installed Grand Master, and Benjamin Howarth installed as Deputy Grand Master. A form of government was adopted, and the County of Lancashire was admitted to the Unity.

In 1815 John Lloyd was elected Grand Master, and Benjamin Howarth was retained as Deputy Grand Master. The jurisdiction was divided into districts and a District Deputy Grand Master appointed for each, and Lodges in each district were numbered in numerical order. Thomas Hignett was appointed corresponding secretary and held the position five years. The funeral system was adopted at this session.

In 1816 Lodges distant from Manchester made application to join the Unity and were admitted on the payment of an entrance fee.

In 1817 the Past Grands charge was adopted and the White, Royal, Blue and Scarlet Degrees reported.

In 1822 The Loyal St. Olives, a Lodge of Odd Fellows which met at "The Sign of the Bull, Bull Court, Tooley Street, Southwark," joined the Manchester Unity, I. O. O. F. This Lodge must have been one of the very first Lodges of Odd Fellows instituted, for it had records to prove that it was in existence as far back as 1750.

In 1817 Thomas Wildey emigrated to America. He was a coach spring maker and wandered over the eastern states working at his trade until the fall of 1818, when he arrived in Baltimore, which city had at that time a population of less than 5,000 inhabitants. The war with England had just closed, in which the city had been attacked and Washington, the capital of the country, but thirty-nine miles away, captured and its public buildings burned. It followed that England was much hated by our countrymen and nowhere was England more hated than in Baltimore. To be an Englishman was an offense to both pride and patriotism, and all such were considered public and perfidious enemies.

Practically ostracised by the Americans Wildey tramped the streets of Baltimore, until the winter of 1818 when he met John Welch, who was, like himself, an Englishman. Being fellow countrymen, a strong attachment soon sprang up between them, and they spent much of their leisure time together.

Wildey had been initiated into an Odd Fellow Lodge in London in 1801, when he was 22 years old, and had later taken an active part in instituting and starting another lodge in the same city which was called Morning Star Lodge No. 38. He had passed through all the offices, having filled the chair of Noble Grand three times. Welch had also been a member of a London Lodge and had passed the chairs before his emigration.

The two friends were loud in their regrets that a change of residence had deprived them of the social pleasures of a lodge and they mutually resolved if possible, to form a lodge of Odd Fellows. After exhausting every means at hand to discover other brothers, but in vain, they concluded to advertise. This happy thought resulted in the following, which appeared in "The Baltimore American" on the 13th day of February, 1819: "Notice to all Odd Fellows.—A few members of the Society of Odd Fellows will be glad to meet their brethren for consultation upon the subject of forming a Lodge. The meeting will be held on Friday evening, the 2nd day of March, 1819."

At the time and place designated two recruits made their appearance, namely, John Cheatham, who had been initiated in England, and was Proficient in the work, and John Duncan, who claimed to have been initiated in the city of Baltimore seventeen years before, but he could give no satisfactory account of the lodge in which it was done, neither its name, location nor membership, but as he retained an accurate knowledge of the Password, Sign and Grip, he was admitted.

Another difficulty arose, that in all they were but four, and by ancient usage the number necessary to form a lodge was five. They method they were adopting was known as "Self Institution" and they might have been irregular in their preliminaries, but the temptation was not sufficient to affect their fidelity to a fundamental principle of the Order. They would not violate the organic law. Frequent conferences were held, and new search was made for an additional member but without success. Again they had recourse to the newspaper, and the following advertisement appeared in the Baltimore American on the 25th day of March, 1819. "Notice to Odd Fellows.—A few members of the Society of Odd Fellows will be glad to meet their brethren for the purpose of forming a lodge, on Friday evening, April 2nd, at the Seven Stars, Second Street, at the hour of seven p. m."

This had the effect of bringing to the surface Richard Rushworth, another initiate of London Lodge, and the magic number was complete. Not a moment was lost, but they made all necessary arrangements as speedily as possible, and on Monday, April 26, 1819, the five brothers met at the "Sign of the Seven Stars" on the south side of Second Street, between Frederick street and Market Space, at a public house kept by a certain William Lupkin, and then and there with all the forms of which they possessed any knowledge, they solemnly instituted and opened a Lodge, which they named "Washington Lodge of Odd Fellows." Thomas Wildey was installed Noble Grand, and John Welch as Vice Grand.

The lodge was instituted by five Englishmen who knew that they were already condemned by a national prejudice. They knew that their object in meeting secretly would be misconstrued, and so they chose for the name of their lodge, the name of the idol of the American People, who had died but a little more than nineteen years before. The name of George Washington. Efforts were made at once to add to their number, and within three weeks they had increased their number to fifteen.

About this time one Henry M. Jackson arrived in Baltimore from Liverpool for the express purpose of instituting lodges in the United States, but finding Washington Lodge already in the field he visited with the brothers. He had brought with him the rituals of the Order and gave them instruction in the charges and lectures of the three degrees. He also informed them of certain improvements that had been made. First the weekly benefit system, Second, the changeable password. (The Current Term Password.) Third, the Code of Laws; Fourth, the Funeral Fund.

A short time after this, John Crowder, P. G. of Preston, Lancashire, England, made a tour of the United States, and visited Washington Lodge, on learning that the lodge was being operated without authority from any Grand Lodge. He suggested that they petition some competent authority of the Independent Order in England for a Dispensation admitting the lodge into the regular fellowship of the Order. The suggestion was enthusiastically received, a petition was immediately prepared and given to Brother Crowder and soon afterwards he returned to his country, as a willing messenger of the Baltimore brethren.

Upon his arrival at Preston he presented the petition to Duke of York Lodge of that place, where he held his membership. The petition was then granted.

The Original Charter from Duke of York Lodge

Washington Lodge No. 1, Pluribus Unum.

The Grand Lodge of Maryland, and of the United States of America, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellowship.
To all whom it may concern:

This warrant of Dispensation is a free gift from the Duke of York Lodge, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellowship, holden at Preston, in the County of Lancaster, in Old England, to a number of brothers residing in the city of Baltimore, to establish a Lodge at the house of Brother Thomas Woodward, in South Frederick Street, in said city; Hailed by the title of "No. 1 Washington Lodge, the Grand Lodge of Maryland and of the United States of America." That the said lodge being the first established in the United States, hath power to grant a warrant of Dispensation to a number of brothers of the Independent Order of Odd Fellowship in any State of the Union for the encouragement and support of brothers of the Said Order when on travel or otherwise. And be it further observed that the said Lodge be not removed from the house of Brother Thomas Woodward, so long as five brothers are agreeable to hold the same. In testimony hereof, we have subjoined our names and affixed the seal of our Lodge, this the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and twenty.

This warrant was dated February 1, 1820, but did not reach Baltimore until October of the same year, and on the 23rd day of that month was formally accepted, the mails could not be trusted, and Past Grand Hale had not yet started the package express in New York, so the document was intrusted to private hands as the safest and speediest mode of transmission. When the document reached Baltimore, almost a year had elapsed since the application had been sent to England.

During the fall or winter of 1819 a number of brothers had withdrawn from Washington Lodge and formed another Lodge, which they named the Franklin Lodge, that Lodge did not wish to become subordinate to Washington and at once made application to the Grand Committee at Manchester for a dispensation. The messenger to whom the document was intrusted was so long on the way that it did not reach the Committee until June, 1821, some nineteen months after it had been sent. The Grand Committee having learned that the Duke of York Lodge of Preston had sixteen months before granted a dispensation to Washington Lodge and knowing that Franklin Lodge was in the same city adopted the following resolution and sent a copy of the same to Franklin Lodge by private hands. The copy was signed by Isaac Hardman, C. S., and in his proper handwriting a note was appended in the words following:

"The Franklin Lodge is desired to apply to Washington for Dispensation, Etc." Special Committee held at the Dog and Volunteer. Salford, June 21, 1821.

"Resolved: That the Washington Lodge, Philadelphia, be acknowledged No. 1 or Grand Lodge of the Province of Maryland in the United States of America, and that they be informed that the usage of Odd Fellowship in England has confirmed a law that each Grand Lodge shall have a district of twelve miles, but that if any Grand Lodge assume an unbecoming prerogative, we will interfere, if just cause be shown, and grant further Dispensations to the United States, and that the legality (under these restrictions) be confirmed by the Duke of York Lodge, Preston."

It appears, from reading the above resolution, that the education of the committee, had been sadly neglected, in United States geography.

The resolution reached the Franklin Lodge early in 1821, and that Lodge immediately made application to Washington Lodge for a dispensation, which was granted and was dated September 5, 1821.

The Grand Lodge of Maryland and of the United States, was organized Feb. 22, 1821, and the following officers installed:

Thomas Wildey, of No. 1, Grand Master, Coach-spring Maker; John P. Entwisle, of No. 1, Deputy Grand Master, Printer; Wm. S. Couth, of No. 1, Grand Warden, Currier; John Welch, of No. 1, Grand Secretary, House and ship painter; John Boyd, of No. 1, Guardian, Mahogany Sawyer; Wm. Larkham, of No. 1, Grand Conductor, Cabinet Maker.

At the beginning of the meeting which resulted in the formation of the Grand Lodge of Maryland and of the United States, the Noble Grand of Washington Lodge No. 1 had surrendered the warrant which that lodge had received from the Duke of York Lodge of Preston, England, and the first business transacted by the new Grand Lodge, was a resolution, that a dispensation be presented to Washington Lodge No. 1, of Maryland, as a Subordinate Lodge.

The first constitution ever adopted by a Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows was adopted by this Grand Lodge, November 22nd, 1821.

April 13, 1823, a dispensation was granted to Massachusetts Lodge No. 1, and another to the Past Grands of that Lodge for the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts.

In 1823 Augustus Mathlot, a member of Washington Lodge, made application for membership in a rival society, but was rejected for no other reason than that he was an Odd Fellow. He was notified in writing that if he would withdraw from the Odd Fellows he would be gladly received among them but he spurned their offer. In the same year Washington Lodge passed a resolution abolishing the use of liquors of any kind in the lodge room.

Franklin Lodge, chartered September 5th, 1821, was given No. 2, and Columbia Lodge No. 3, was chartered November 22, 1823.

The first public funeral of an Odd Fellow in America was that of Andrew Wark, who was a member of Franklin Lodge No. 2, which occurred in the spring of 1823.

In 1823 both Grand and Subordinate lodges were instituted in the States of Pennsylvania, New York and Massachusetts. Columbia Lodge of New York surrendered a charter from Duke of Sussex Lodge No. 2, of Liverpool, England, under which they had been working, and accepted one from the Grand Lodge of the United States and Maryland.

The Grand Treasurer's report for 1823 shows receipts from all sources $115.08, disbursements $100.37, balance in the hands of Grand Treasurer $14.71.

In 1825 the order having spread into several other states the Grand Lodge of the United States was separated from the Grand Lodge of Maryland and the Grand Lodge of the United States.

The first meeting of the Grand Lodge of the United States was held in 1826. The names of the principal officers were changed to Grand Sire and Deputy Grand Sire as it is today. Thomas Wildey was elected Grand Sire and John Welch Deputy Grand Sire. The Encampment degrees were conferred on several candidates at this meeting. Grand Sire Wildey made a report of his visit to England and delivered the charter which had been presented to him by the Grand Officers of the Manchester Unity.

The Duke of York Lodge of Preston, which had first chartered Maryland Lodge, was itself a Subordinate Lodge and the brothers were very glad to receive a charter from the highest Lodge in the world which affirmed the one they already had.

A copy of the new charter follows:

English Charter of May 15, 1826, I. O. O. F.

This Dispensation, granted by the consent of the Grand Master and past and present officers from various lodges connected with the Manchester Unity, assembled in Grand Committee.

In consideration of the charter formerly granted by the Duke of York Lodge, Preston, to certain officers and brothers of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, in Baltimore, in the United States of America. We the undersigned, respectively, officers of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in Great Britain, do ratify, grant and confirm such Charter; and also hereby grant, authorize and empower the Grand Sire, Deputy Grand Sire, Representatives and Proxies of the Grand Lodge of the United States of America, to conduct the business of Odd Fellowship, Without the Interference of Any Other Country, so long as the same is administered according to the principles and purity of Odd Fellowship.

This Charter being granted as a free gift from the Grand Annual Movable Committee, in Manchester, assembled on the 15th day of May, in the year 1826.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto affixed our seals, displayed the colors of our order and subscribed our names the day and year above written.

This charter, granting as it did the Grand Lodge of the United States, absolute independence of any other Grand Lodge, was the beginning of the division between the two orders, for each soon began making changes in its work without consulting the other until today, while they are much alike, in some respects, they are so widely different in others that it is impossible for the two orders to consolidate without each making great changes in its work. Both orders are trying to bring this about, but so far have not been successful.

Thus far I have endeavored to give in a condensed form the history of the order, from its origin in England until the organization of the Grand Lodge of the United States. As I am pressed for time and space the remainder of this article will consist of a very brief mention of those facts which will probably be of the most interest to the brethren at large.

In 1816 the Manchester Unity adopted the degrees which were brought to America. They were the First or White, Second or Blue, Third or Scarlet. Although these degrees were adopted at that time, the Manchester Unity received them from the London Order, called the Grand Lodge of England, and adopted them as their own when they seceded from that body.

In August, 1820, John P. Entwisle submitted to the Committee of Past Grands of Washington Lodge, No. 1, two new degrees called the "Covenant and Remembrance." In the revision of the work in 1829, these degrees were probably merged with the other work, for we still retain the color pink in one degree.

In 1822 Grand Guardian John Boyd, "presented two tickets in the Washington Monument Lottery, purchased for the use of the Grand Lodge," but history makes no mention of the tickets drawing a prize.

In 1824, April 26 was fixed as Anniversary Day, and the annual traveling password established.

In 1824 the state of Massachusetts enacted a law which forbade any secret society administering an obligation to any of its members under a penalty of two hundred dollars for each violation. It was claimed that this law was not intended to interfere with our order, but as it referred directly to such obligations as were given and required at initiations, installations, etc. The matter was brought to the attention of the Grand Lodge of the United States. That body made such changes in the wording of the obligations as were necessary to evade the law, and these changes are still in effect. At this meeting the Grand Secretary was given the magnificent sum of $82 for salary and expenses.

July 25, 1838, Lone Star Lodge was instituted at Houston in the Republic of Texas, which was the first Lodge instituted in a foreign country under a charter from the Grand Lodge of the United States. Past Grand Master Wildey was retained as Traveling Agent, to serve without salary or expenses. His next report showed that he had done his traveling by letter.

In 1840 the regalia of the order was declared to be, for Initiates, a white apron only; First degree, white apron and white collar; Second degree, white apron and white collar trimmed with pink; Third degree, white apron and white collar trimmed with blue; Fourth degree, white apron and white collar trimmed with green; Fifth degree, white apron and white collar trimmed with scarlet. The regalia for the Encampment degrees was, Patriarchal, a black apron and black gloves; Golden Rule, black apron trimmed in yellow lace and black gloves; Royal Purple, purple collar, trimmed with yellow lace, black apron and black gloves.

In 1841 the attention of the Grand Lodge was called to the fact that a war of extermination had been declared on the Odd Fellows by a rival association in Louisiana. The war seems to have been a failure for the other association.

In 1842 the last remaining tie between the Manchester Unity and the Grand Lodge of the United States was dissolved.

By 1845 Grand Lodges were established in all the States east of the Mississippi river. And the ritual had been translated into French, German and Welsh languages.

In 1847 the first Lodge in California was "self instituted" in San Francisco. When gold was discovered in that state the members of the lodge burned their books and papers, stored their regalia and other property and all joined the gold rush. Their property was destroyed in a fire and the lodge was never revived. But in 1849 a lodge known as California Lodge No. 1 was regularly instituted in the same city.

In 1850 a committee was appointed for the purpose of preparing a "Female Degree" of which Schuyler Colfax, who afterwards became Vice President of the United States, was chairman, with instructions to report at the next session.

In 1851 the committee reported, and after much discussion the "Female Degree" now known as the Rebekah Degree was adopted, by a vote of 46 to 37, and a ritual said to have been written by Schuyler Colfax was ordered printed and bound in a separate volume to be sold as supplies for $1.00 a copy. At this meeting the Grand Lodge contributed a block of marble costing $500 to the building of the Washington Monument. This block bore on its polished face the seal of the Grand Lodge and an appropriate inscription. The letter written by the President of the United States in acceptance was highly complimentary to the order. The London Order of Odd Fellows made overtures to unite with us but were informed that they could only do so by adopting our work in its entirety.

1854. Overtures of the Manchester Unity for reciprocal relations with the Order were refused unless they would first adopt the work and usages practiced here.

1860. Grand Lodge met in Nashville, Tennessee, Robert A. Boylston of South Carolina elected Grand Sire. The Grand Lodge visited the tomb of Andrew Jackson.

1861. Grand Lodge met in Baltimore. Grand Sire Boylston was at Fairfax Courthouse serving on the staff of the General commanding the Confederate forces. Thirty-eight Southern Delegates were prevented from attending by the lines of war. Efforts were made to induce the Southern brothers to secede from the Order as their states had from the Union, but without success. The South was loyal to the Order. All representatives had to have passes to enter Baltimore. Lieutenant J. H. Chase, a Past Grand of Firemen's Lodge No. 19, Albany, New York, reported saving the books and papers of Patrick Henry Lodge No. 15 at Hampton, Virginia, during the fighting at that place and sending them to the Grand Lodge. The village was burned the next day by order of Colonel Magruder of the Confederate Army. Past Grand Sire Wildey appeared for the last time in the Grand Lodge. He died on the 19th day of October, 1861, at the age of eighty years, but he had lived to see the Order he had founded grow from a membership of five men to one of 200,000 scattered over 42 jurisdictions.

1862. Grand Lodge met in Baltimore. No delegates were present from the Southern States. The following letter was received from the Grand Master of Virginia:

Norfolk, September 17, 1862.

James L. Ridgely, Grand Secretary:
Dear Sir and Brother:

Permit me to remind you that our mall facilities are open between us. Notwithstanding the difficulties of this causeless war, and it will afford me much pleasure to receive your daily printed proceedings.

I am, Dear Sir, Yours respectfully,

A. L. Hill,
Grand Master.

This was a session of great anxiety. Delegates were very careful not to express their opinions on political questions. Confederate troops under General Lee had crossed the Potomac, and while the Grand Lodge was in session the Battle of Antietam was fought on Maryland soil. Plans were inaugurated for the building of a monument to the memory of Past Grand Sire Wildey.

1863. Grand Lodge met in Baltimore with three delegates from Tennessee present in addition to those from the North. They were the first delegates from a Confederate State to re-enter the Grand Lodge and were very cordially received. All claims which the Grand Lodge had against the Jurisdiction of Tennessee were cancelled, on account of the inability to pay dues or send delegates in the year 1861-62. Not much work was being done in Subordinate Lodges for all able-bodied men both in the North and South were in the army. Although the Nation disrupted, no break had occurred in our Order.

1864. Grand Lodge met in Boston, Massachusetts. Tennessee again present but no other Southern State was represented. West Virginia and Louisiana's reports, Louisiana reporting great activity in Lodges in New Orleans. West Virginia petitioned to be admitted as a separate Grand Lodge. The petition was approved and the Grand Sire visited West Virginia and appointed Brother Thomas G. Steele Special Commissioner to give them instructions in the work and to communicate the passwords. By this act our Order gained one New Grand Lodge in the South during the war.

1865. On the 18th day of September, Grand Lodge met in Baltimore, with the representatives of all the Jurisdictions present for the first time since 1860. It was a session of great rejoicing for the Order had passed through the war unbroken and unscratched. Soldiers from the North sat by the side of soldiers from the South in harmony and love. That was the first reunion of the Blue and the Gray. The first public parade of the Blue and the Gray was on Wednesday, September the 20th, 1865, when these same delegates marched in a procession to attend the dedication of the Wildey Monument in that city. Speeches were made at the Monument by Past Grand Sire Nicholson of Pennsylvania, Isaac M. Vetch of Missouri, Lieutenant Governor Cook of Maryland, Ex-Governor Fisk of Kentucky, H. B. Andrews of Texas, Colonel Doniphan of Missouri, Judge Fitzhugh of Virginia and others. At this session all debts owed to the Grand Lodge of the United States by the Grand Lodges of the South were cancelled. They were donated $1,000 in cash and given credit to purchase supplies, so they could continue in their work.

1866-70. All jurisdictions reported unprecedented growth of the Order. $20,000 was spent for the relief of Lodges in the South. The Grand Lodge made claims to the United States Government for damages to Lodge property which was done by troops in the South during the war. Every assistance was given to aid the South during the reconstruction period. The Order was now instituted in all the States of the Union, and also had been instituted in Canada, Hawaii, Australia, New Zealand and Germany.

The following table will show at a glance the rapid growth of the Order.

Number of initiations for the decade: 1830 to 1839, inclusive, 18,000; 1840 to 1849, inclusive, 179,751; 1850 to 1859, inclusive, 231,252; 1860 to 1869, inclusive, 228,193.

In the year of 1870 the Subordinate and Encampment branches paid out the amounts following for the purposes mentioned:

For relief of members $579,043.81, Subordinate and Encampment $75,734.02.
 For relief of widowed families, Subordinate $122,043.65, Encampment $4,848.53.
 For relief of orphans, Subordinate $9,444.16, Encampment $138.00.
 For burying the dead, Subordinate $132,659.21, Encampment $12,454.76.

1871 to 1879, inclusive. In 1871 the Grand Lodge of the United States met in Chicago. Soon after adjournment the Great Fire occurred in that city. The Grand Sire appealed to the Subordinate Lodges of the Nation for assistance in relieving the distress. $131,000 was donated by the Odd Fellows faster than the committee could distribute it. After all demands had been supplied $10,000 still remained unexpended.

The growth of the Order was wonderful. In 1871 the membership was 348,898. In 1879 it was 450,238.

In this decade Grand or Subordinate Lodges were instituted in the countries of Switzerland, Chile, Peru, Netherlands, Barbadoes, Denmark and Germany. In 1876, 17,568 Odd Fellows marched in a parade in Philadelphia in twenty divisions, with ninety-two brass bands and nine flute and drum corps. At this session the name was changed to Sovereign Lodge of the I. O. O. F.

1880 to 1890, inclusive. Lodges were instituted in Mexico, New South Wales, Tasmania, Cuba, Sweden and France. In 1881 a revised ritual was adopted. The initiation was left as it was, and was not numbered. Its collar was white. The covenant and remembrance degrees were merged with the others and were numbered as they are today. First color, pink, second blue, third scarlet. The Order in South America suffered from the war between Chile and Peru. In 1880 the Subordinate members numbered 466,837 and Encampment members numbered 79,950. In 1886 Subordinate members numbered 547,850 and Encampment members 100,223.

A communication was received from the Manchester Unity expressing a desire to reopen friendly relations and to re-establish the old visiting relations.

In 1886 the following sums were spent for relief:

Relief of members, Subordinate $1,381,128.41, Encampment $106,454.02, Rebekah $12,578.01.

Relief of widowed families, Subordinate $137,841.79, Encampment $5,056.19.

Education of orphans, Subordinate $16,000.05, Encampment $357.52.

Burying of the dead, Subordinate $354,169.64. Encampment $32,943.32.

At this time Rebekahs were called Daughters of Rebekah.

1890 to 1900, inclusive. The Order was progressing favorably in all parts of the world except France, Italy, Cuba and South America. In Italy and France unfavorable laws and religious persecution retarded the growth of the Order. Wars and religious persecution were responsible for the condition of the Order in Cuba and South America. Cuba fought Spain for her independence in this decade. In 1895, 28,000 members were added to the Rebekah Degree. The wearing of Aprons in the Encampment was abolished. Lodges were instituted in Alaska and Newfoundland.

In 1900 $15,000 was donated to relieve the sufferers in the Galveston Flood. And the Order was planted in Argentine Republic. Efforts were made to renew the relations of intervisitations with the Manchester Unity.

1900 to 1912. In 1902 nearly 56,000 members were added to the Subordinate Lodges. The Encampment brand gained 9,000 members, the Rebekahs 23,000 and the Canton 931.

1903. The Order was planted in the Philippines, and preliminary steps taken to organize lodges in South Africa.

1906. In response to calls for relief for the benefit of the sufferers from the earthquake and fire in San Francisco, California, the Sovereign Grand Lodge expended $214,259.74, besides other thousands of dollars in contributions of food and clothing.

1908. Past Grand Sire of the Grand Lodge of Australia was in attendance as representative from that Grand Jurisdiction.

1911. Grand Lodges of Indian Territory, in Oklahoma, were reported consolidated since last meeting. A Grand Lodge had been instituted in the Indian Territory August 3rd, 1893. Total membership in 1911 was 2,080,894. Brothers, 1,624,606. Sisters, 456,288. Expended for relief in the year $5,851,277.65. Receipts of all Subordinate Lodges, 1911, $18,303,210.86. Invested funds of both Grand and Subordinate Lodges, $63,381,213.87.

In 1924, Far East Lodges No. 1, Yokohama, Japan, was reported to the Sovereign Grand Lodge as having been totally destroyed by earthquake and fire. All books, papers and paraphernalia were reported gone and the members scattered, many of them having gone to other countries.

According to the report to the Sovereign Grand Lodge of 1926, the survivors of Far East Lodge of Yokohama, Japan (which had lost all books and papers, and many of its members in the great earthquake and fire in that country), had applied for and received a duplicate Charter and supplies and was now functioning.

Laws had been passed in the Philippine Islands under which our Order had been classed as an insurance company, and which gave the authorities the right to examine the records of our Lodges and to fix the amount of dues which were to be paid. Our Lodges could not possibly comply with the laws which had been enacted, but by discontinuing the payment of stipulated sick and funeral benefits, the law would not apply to them. Accordingly all lodges in that jurisdiction ceased the payment of sick and funeral benefits and the trouble was over.

The report of the visit of Grand Sire Herbert Thompson and Mrs. Thompson to the Triennial Conference of the Grand Sires of the jurisdictions of Europe at Berne, Switzerland, was very interesting as well as instructive. According to the report our Order in Europe consists of Grand Lodges in Norway with Subordinate Lodges, Encampments and Rebekah Lodges; Sweden with Subordinate Lodges, Encampments and many ladies interested in the work of Odd Fellowship; and with Subordinate Lodges under its protectorate in Finland; Denmark with Subordinate Lodges, Encampments and Rebekah Lodges, units of our Order in Iceland, where the Order is maintaining a leper hospital; outposts of Odd Fellowship in Greenland; Netherlands, where they have Subordinate Lodges, Encampments and Ladies' Organizations which work in connection with the Odd Fellows; Germany, where there is the Grand Lodge of Germany with eight Grand Lodges working under its jurisdiction, with Subordinate Lodges, Encampments and Circles of Sisters; Poland, with Subordinate Lodges, Encampments and Ladies' Circles; Czechoslovakia, with Subordinates, Encampments and Ladies' Circles; in addition these there are Lodges in the free city of Danzig under the jurisdiction of many, Belgium under the jurisdiction of Netherlands, Lodges in the Dutch Indies, in Strassburg, France, and in Austria.

In Sweden the King, Crown Prince and Minister of Education are Odd Fellows. The Minister of Education is the Grand Sire of the Order in Sweden.

All over Europe the Order is in a flourishing condition except in Germany and Belgium. These countries are still suffering from the effects of the World War. These conditions are being speedily remedied and it is expected that the next report will show them in better condition.

The officials of Poland are bitterly opposed to the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and soon after the organization of the present Republic of Poland, the officers attempted to confiscate all the property of the Order, but upon their being informed that the property was owned by a great organization whose headquarters was in the United States of America, they desisted. The gesture was sufficient.

Condition of the Order throughout the world December 31, 1926: Number of Subordinate Lodges 15,955, Rebekah Lodges 10,411, Subordinate Encampments 3,645, Cantons, Patriarch Militant 784, Lodge members 1,830,493, Sister Rebekah Degree 768,104, total membership in the order 2,598,587, total relief paid in 1926, $7,861,263.79, invested funds of Grand and Subordinate bodies and Patriarchs Militant $109,758,568.76, brothers relieved 126,163, Patriarchs relieved 13,695, Rebekahs relieved 3,139, widowed families relieved by Subordinate Lodges 7,831, by Encampments 253, brothers buried 22,776, Patriarchs buried 3,119, sisters of the Rebekah Degree buried 7,266, Orphan and other Homes owned by the Order 61, present value $11,415,821.90, cost of maintenance $1,950,188.33, number of residents 5,999. The Manchester Unity of the I. O. O. F., which has a membership of 1,078,456, and the Grand United Order of the O. F., which has a membership of 601,731, have no connection with our Order and these figures do not apply to them. All attempts to unite the three orders into one great order have thus far been unsuccessful.

EARLY HISTORY OF ODD FELLOWSHIP IN OREGON

By E. M. BARNUM, P. G. M. and P. G. R.

The earliest recorded efforts to establish Odd Fellowship in Oregon occurred in 1846. Thomas Sherlock, being Grand Sire, an application for authority to institute a Lodge in that Territory was received from Samuel York, P. G. M., of Washington, D. C. Some brothers in St. Louis also applied for power to institute a Lodge in that city and to remove the same to some point in Oregon. Neither of these were granted.

Early in the same year an application was received from Gilbert Watson, P. G., of Massachusetts for a dispensation to establish a Lodge in Oregon City on his arrival there. He represented that a party was about to emigrate from Massachusetts to Oregon, and that of the party there were five Odd Fellows in good standing. Strong testimonials of the worth and standing of Brother Watson accompanied this application and the Grand Sire advised him that upon making petition in accordance with law the desired authority would be granted. From some cause, probably by reason of early sailing of the vessel hearing this party of pioneers for Oregon, petition was not made to the Grand Sire. A dispensation, however, was obtained from Albert Guild, D. D. G. Sire of Massachusetts, authorizing Brother Watson and such others as he might see proper to include with himself, to institute a Lodge on arrival at their destination.

The necessary books and a commission as D. D. G. Sire for the Territory of Oregon for one year was furnished by Brother Guild, under his supposed authority.

This action, wholly without sanction of law, was specially noticed in the report of Grand Sire Sherlock at the annual session of the G. L. U. S., September, 1846. The following interesting extract is made from that report:

"The importance of an early occupation of that great territory, to which public attention is at present so strongly directed, would have induced me to issue to P. G. Watson, the authority prayed for by him had I considered myself authorized so to do. Satisfied of his ability to place the Order on a respectable footing and of his zeal and moral worth it would have been a source of great pleasure to me to have confided to him that important trust. It is submitted to the Grand Lodge whether under the peculiar circumstances of the case it would not be the best course to authorize the Grand Officers to forward to P. G. Watson the papers necessary to legalize the act of the D. D. G. Sire."

Grand Secretary Ridgely, in his report of money receipts, includes an item of $30, March 26th, 1846, for "Oregon City Lodge, No. 1." This sum was covered into the treasury of the G. L. U. S.

The committee on petitions in G. L. U. S. reported in relation to this petition and papers for a Lodge at Oregon City, "that a charter had been improperly issued by a D. D. G. Sire under a misapprehension of his duties, as explained in the annual report of the M. W. Grand Sire, and recommend that a charter in due form be granted to Brother Gilbert Watson and his co-petitioners, to be forwarded as a substitute for the illegal charter, which without any fault on their part they have taken out with them."

This party sailed for Oregon in April, 1846, but never arrived at its proposed destination. As a Subordinate Lodge still exists which for nearly a third of a century has been working from its institution under the original authority intended for organizing "Oregon City Lodge No. 1," it will be a matter of no little interest to trace this waif of Odd Fellowship on its long ocean voyage, until at a verdant spot upon the bosom of the Pacific it found a home in the earliest shrine erected to our beloved Order west of the Rocky Mountains.

A duly authorized warrant for "Oregon Lodge No. 1" was transmitted to Brother Watson by the hands of a Brother H. W. Crabbe, who sailed for Honolulu in June, 1847.

At the session of the G. L. U. S. in September, 1847, Thomas Sherlock, Grand Sire, a petition for a Lodge in Honolulu, Oahu, Hawaiian Islands, was reported. Among the papers accompanying this petition were copies of correspondence had by the signers with Gilbert Watson, P. G., who, under supposed authority of the former year, had issued a dispensation for and established a Lodge in Honolulu called "Excelsior No. 1". The Grand Sire recommended "that the act of P. G. Watson be legalized".

Grand Secretary Ridgely reports same year that he had "received through the hands of P. G. Albert Guild, formerly a G. R. from the G. L. of Massachusetts, documents from Honolulu, Oahu, a city of the Sandwich Islands," from which it appeared that "Excelsior Lodge No. 1," instituted by Brother Watson, and a self-instituted Lodge called "Pacific Lodge of Odd Fellows", also asking recognition by the G. L. U. S., were both at work in that place, and between which no fellowship existed.

The Grand Lodge confirmed the institution of "Excelsior, No. 1", and ordered a charter therefor to be issued.

Brother Watson died at Honolulu in 1848—his eyes never beholding those snow-cled monarchs of the mountains, which stand on either hand the giant guards of the Cascades of the Columbia.

While gathering the foregoing facts, the following item from a copy of the Albany Argus, N. Y., September, 1876, has come under the eye of the writer. The persons named therein are believed to have been fellow passengers with Brother Watson and his party bound for Oregon in 1846.

ADRIFT ON THE PACIFIC 237 DAYS

"Charles R. Bishop, banker of Honolulu, on the Island of Oahu, capital of the Sandwich Islands, formerly of Sandy Hill, and wife—a native princess—are on a visit to friends and relatives in this country, and yesterday were the guests of George Bradley of Fort Edward. Mr. Bishop, in company with the late William E. Lee, a lawyer of Sandy Hill, shipped in a sailing vessel at Newburyport, in the year 1816, bound for Oregon, and after being adrift 237 days, drifted about by contrary winds, landed on the Island of Oahu, one of the Sandwich Islands grouped in the Pacific Ocean. These two young adventurers found themselves amongst strangers on a small island many thousand miles away from home and friends an Oregon, the land of their fondest hopes, not reached. But this island, having been visited and Christianized by American missionaries many years before, these young men found favor with the King and Court and they soon established themselves in business. Being prospered, they remained, and Mr. Bishop, surviving his companion, now returns to his native land and home after an absence of thirty years, to enjoy a short visit with those of his old friends, relatives and associates who still may be found amongst the living."

At the session of the G. L. U. S. in 1848 Oregon received, for the first time, a special mention in the reports of the Grand Sire and Grand Secretary. Grand Sire Horn R. Kneass says: "In May last I received from Brother William Towers, M. W. G. M. of the District of Columbia, a communication upon the subject of establishing Lodges on the Pacific Coast, particularly in Oregon, and suggesting to me a ready means by which that object can be accomplished, in the event of my seeing no impediment in the way of my authorizing so important a step. The introduction of the light of Odd Fellowship to that remote region would no doubt contribute in a great degree to make that comparative wilderness smile and blossom with the fruits of civilization and impart additional warmth to the hearts of the sparsely scattered population of that recently explored seaboard, yet I was constrained to defer to the decision of this body, made at the last session, in the hope that at the reassembling of the representatives at this session some efforts might be made to send the glad tidings of our brotherhood across the Rocky Mountains and proclaim them, in accents of fraternal love, upon the ocean-bound coast of Oregon. I therefore most respectfully invoke your earnest attention to this interesting subject.

Grand Secretary Ridgely uses the following language.

"The Lodge—Oregon, No. 1—designed to be located at the City of Oregon, in the Territory of Oregon, has not been opened, as heretofore reported. Very recent information has been received of the appointment by the Government of a number of civil officers for the Territory of Oregon, who are anxious to carry Odd Fellowship with them into that distant part of our country. An application has been received from a distinguished member of the Order, appointed to the Revenue Service in Oregon, asking to be entrusted with plenary powers to institute Lodges in that Territory."

A special committee, consisting of Repes, Towers, of District of Columbia, Silsby of Alabama, and Whider of Michigan, to whom was referred matters relating to the establishment of the Order on the Pacific Coast, reported a resolution advising the appointment of Alex. V. Frazer, P. G., and P. C. E., of the District of Columbia, "a special commissioner" to establish and supervise the Order in California and Oregon, and in the Islands of the Pacific during the pleasure of the Grand Lodge. P. G. Frazer, being sent out by the Government in that year to supervise the revenue service on the Pacific Coast, was duly commissioned a Special Deputy Grand sire of the Order, September 23rd, 1818, for the same district. This was followed by his acceptance of the charge, with the following letter of acknowledgment:

To the Grand Lodge of Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the United States of America:

Brethren—I desire to offer my very grateful acknowledgments for the distinguished honor conferred upon me in my appointment as Special Deputy to the Pacific Coast and to offer the assurance that my utmost efforts will be exercised in carrying out to the fullest extent of my ability, the benevolent objects of our beloved Order throughout the extensive sphere of my district.

ALEX V. FRAZER.

Brother Frazer was supplied with blank warrants, books and every necessary material to carry out the purposes of his mission. Gold discoveries in California so entirely revolutionized the theater of his labors as revenue officer of the government that he did not visit Oregon, and the establishment of the Order here was again delayed. He was, however, the bearer of a charter from the Grand Lodge Officers, intended for "Oregon Lodge, No. 1", which at Baltimore was supposed to have been instituted by Brother Watson after temporary delay only at the Sandwich Islands.

Brother Frazer, soon after his arrival on the Pacific Coast, was at Honolulu, and this charter was used by him for the new Lodge in that city. So let the brothers of Excelsior, No. 1, at Honolulu, and of Oregon, No. 3, at Oregon City, join mystic hands across the broad expanse of waters which divides their Lodges and their lands, and as another Esau and Jacob, fraternally settle the question of blight.

In the three following years the only allusion made to Oregon in records of the Order are embodied in terse laconics found in Grand Secretary Ridgely's reports for those years, as follows:

1819. "No report has been received."

1820. "No report or information from this Territory."

1851. "No lodge is believed to exist in this Territory."

During the year 1850 correspondence was held between P. G. Frazer and some Odd Fellows in Portland and Astoria, in reference to organizing a Lodge in the Territory. Books and papers intended for this purpose are believed to have been forwarded from San Francisco to Brother Frazer. Beyond some faint intelligence of their transmission as far as to the Columbia river, nothing can now be traced. They were either lost or returned by the bearer to the special D. G. Sire. Report was current amongst Odd Fellows in Oregon in 1851 of this effort towards organizing a Lodge, but further than indefinite rumor, facts are in oblivion.

The year 1851, with its rapid social transformations occurring from many Oregonians returning who had been gold seekers in California, and from large immigration by overland and by sea, was a season of special activity and enterprise in the development of Oregon.

Odd Fellows resident at Salem and Portland, fresh from homes in the Atlantic and Central States, especially began to canvass the matter of organizing Subordinate Lodges. To the pioneer brothers of Salem, which place by recent act of the Legislative Assembly had been constituted the future Capital of the Territory, pertains the credit of presenting the first organized home effort for establishing a lodge.

In December of this year, while the Legislature was holding its first session at Salem, notice was distributed by Brother E. M. Barnum, inviting Odd Fellows in the place, to meet at a designated time for the purpose of considering the question of organizing a Lodge. Six brothers responded to the call, viz.: E. M. Barnum, E. N. Cooke, Samuel E. May, A. W. Ferguson, C. S. Woodworth and J. R. Hardin. At the first meeting it was determined to proceed with the good work.

A petition to the Grand Lodge of the United States was drawn and circulated to which a dozen signatures were obtained. Only two of the signers at the time had either visiting or withdrawal cards.

This petition is dated January 7, 1852, in this verbiis:

TO THE GRAND LODGE OF INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODD FELLOWS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA:

Your petitioners, members of your benevolent and honorable Order, now residing in the Territory of Oregon, being desirous of establishing a Lodge in this country, respectfully ask that you will grant to them a charter for a Subordinate Lodge to be located at Salem, Marion County, Oregon Territory, to be named Chemeketa Lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F.

Your petitioners would represent to your honorable body, that Salem, the place at which they ask this Lodge to be located, is the seat of government of the Territory of Oregon, that a vigorous and healthy Lodge could, in a short time, be built up here, and one that shall be an honor to the Order, and widely disseminate the principles of Friendship, Love and Truth. And as in duty bound your petitioners will ever pray.

Salem, Oregon Territory, January 7th, 1852.

The name chosen by the petitioners for the Pioneer Lodge in Oregon, at first so odd and unfamiliar, gave rise to many amusing incidents. For its adoption, the Order is indebted to the quaint and genial humor with which good old Doctor Wilson, of blessed memory, gave instructions for correct Indian pronunciation of the word.

Many names for the proposed Lodge had been offered and rejected. The Doctor, who though never initiated, but an odd Fellow in spirit and in truth, was applied to for information as to some Indian name of pleasing sound, associated with the locality which the town of Salem stands.

This name, Chemeketa, now as familiar to Oregon ears, and certainly as euphonious as Connecticut, Mississippi, Schenectady or Susquehanna, names of Indian origin, was at first a "jawbreaker." Its signification in the Indian dialect, was said to be "the old home" or "the old camp." It was written by the Doctor with pencil. "And how is it pronounced in jargon?" asked one. "Oh, easy, easy enough," was his reply—"a cough, a seneeze, a hiccough, and say t."

The petition forwarded to Grand Secretary Ridgely without accompanying cards, was received by that officer March 4th, 1852, and on the same day a reply was written requesting cards to be transmitted prior to granting the prayer. After much delay, four cards of signers were obtained and sent by mail, June 15, 1852. Brother Joel Palmer forwarded his card from Dayton a few days thereafter.

On the 16th of August, 1852, the warrant for Chemeketa Lodge, No. 1, was issued to E. M. Barnum, P. G., with special commission to open the Lodge.

The five brothers whose cards were duly forwarded, and whose names appear in the original warrant, are:

- E. M. BARNUM, P. G.,
- E. N. COOKE,
- BENJ. F. HARDING,
- CYRUS S. WOODWORTH,
- JOEL PALMER.

A temporary Lodge room was fitted up in the attic of third story of the "Rector Building" on Commercial street, between Ferry and Trade streets, the second floor being leased for the two houses of the Legislative Assembly. Within the walls of this earliest home of a Subordinate Lodge in Oregon, occurred many incidents, which will be recalled with great pleasure, by the pioneer brotherhood. The Lodge was instituted on the 6th of December, 1852, by P. G. Barnum, assisted by the following named brothers:

- J. A. Ripperton, in V. G. Chair.
- S. E. May, in Secretary's Chair.
